

Church Council and Church Lay Leadership Meet and Greet | Minutes

Sunday, January 21, 2024 | 12:30 PM

12:30 PM

Pastor Carolyn opened the meeting in prayer.

Pastor Carolyn asked those in attendance to share about yourself, what you like to see.

Here is a rundown of some of the vision from those in attendance:

- Congregational Care
- Ministry in Midtown – showing radical love.
- Rebirth of Blessed of the Feet
- Open Doors – Reopen
- Coffee and Visit
- More Community Outreach
- Togetherness and make sure people know they are welcomed.
- Gardening – sustainable food
- Where can we do more for children?
- Columbarium
- Way to get people plugged in
- Look a little different for hospitality.
- Outreach Closet
- Atlanta Streets Alive
- Expand the outreach like a warming center.
- Grow the children's volunteers!
- Reading out to visitors and following up with them.
- Reaching out to get more in Fine Arts
- Acolytes
- Drama Ministry
- Be a self-sustainable church again (Financially)
- Warming stations, shower facility and locker facility.
- Modernization
- Bring back Habit for Humanity
- Bring global ministries back.
- Help give addresses to people and give people a voice.
- Be a carry-away church.
- Going outside of the walls of the church
- More life inside the church during the week.
- More young people and youth in more meeting chairs.
- More of a regional church and more kids
- Covered Dish suppers.
- In home visits
- Get Youth more involved in the life of the church.

Church Council and Church Lay Leadership Meet and Greet | Minutes

Sunday, January 21, 2024 | 12:30 PM

Pastor Carolyn closed the session in prayer after celebrating the vision of the Church Leadership.

The Church Council moved into Executive Session to discuss a matter from Staff Parish Relations.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads 'Robert J. Gilleo'. The signature is written in a cursive style.

Robert Gilleo
January 21, 2024